

2026 Pokémon TCG Conventions Focus on Community Spirit

Description

Many Pokemon fans in the U.S. are enjoying unofficial Pokemon TCG conventions. These events have become popular since 2021. Before the pandemic, few large conventions happened. Now, many focus on buying and selling cards, attracting a mix of people.

"Card Party" is different. It is about community and connection. People can still buy and sell cards, but the main aim is to enjoy Pokemon together. The event has games, activities, and live shows. Card Party is now in its fourth year. It is the only event that gathers many popular Pokemon community members.

Next weekend, Card Party will take place in San Diego. It will have team competitions, live game shows, and trivia quizzes. Fans will join teams and earn points through fun activities. At night, everyone gathers for shows and meets fellow fans. This creates a friendly and exciting atmosphere.

Many events will continue this year. Card Party will have shows in other cities as well. These events help fans connect in a special way.
