

Abundantia Entertainment Seeks $30M for Expansion and Projects

Description

Abundantia Entertainment, an Indian production company, is looking for $30 million in investments. They have produced successful films and shows like "Baby" and "Toilet Ek Prem Katha." Their focus is on unique and profitable projects. They are now seeking funds to expand globally and improve their content slate. CEO Vikram Malhotra explains that the funds will also help in building a stronger team and creating more content for international markets. They are in talks with foreign investors for strategic partnerships. The company plans to produce more low-budget films for theaters and digital platforms. They believe in telling compelling and relevant stories in genres like horror and youth-centric themes. Their upcoming slate includes projects like "Subedar" starring Anil Kapoor and other exciting films and shows. Abundantia Entertainment aims for growth and success in the coming years.
