

Adrian Dittman Grilled in 'Fortnite' Stream: Not Elon Musk?

Description

Fortnite

Epic

Recently, there has been a lot of talk about a Twitter user named Adrian Dittman who many thought was actually Elon Musk. However, a new article from The Spectator proves that Dittman is just a big fan of Musk and not Musk himself.

ConnorEatsPants, a popular YouTuber/Streamer, invited Dittman to play Fortnite on a stream. Despite some believing Dittman was Musk, he denied it, and the new report confirms he is not Musk.

The stream revealed that Dittman and Musk have some things in common, like their interest in certain games and movies. But the evidence shows that Dittman is not pretending to be Musk using a voice changer or AI program.

It's been a confusing situation, with Dittman sharing screenshots and posts that made people think he was Musk. But it turns out, he's just a big fan who's not great at Fortnite.
