

Alexis Mac Allister: I see my World Cup medal daily and hope to make my own museum

Description

Liverpool football player Alexis Mac Allister takes out his World Cup winners' medal every day. He won this medal in December 2022 and it is very important to him. He plans to create a small museum at home for all his football awards. On Sunday, there will be a football match between Liverpool and Chelsea. Mac Allister hopes to win another trophy in this game.

At 25, Mac Allister is still a young player. He is proud of winning the World Cup, a major event in football. He is looking forward to winning more trophies in the future.

Football is important in Mac Allister's family. His father, brothers, and uncle all play or have played football. He often gets advice from them.

Mac Allister likes playing for Liverpool. He feels a strong connection with the club and its fans. He hopes to play for Liverpool for many years. He could not have played for Chelsea, another football club, because Liverpool was his only choice.
