

Bridgerton and The Sims 4 Unveil Masquerade Ball Kit

Description

Netflix, Shondaland, and Electronic Arts have announced an innovative collaboration, bringing the essence of "Bridgerton" to the popular video game, "The Sims 4." This partnership will allow fans to engage with the show's world through a limited-time event from May 12 to July 7.

During this period, players can partake in a free login event that offers a collection of over 22 "Bridgerton"-themed items. These rewards include new features for creating characters, building environments, and even a unique trait designed to enhance gameplay.

Additionally, two purchasable kits will be available: "The Sims 4 Lady Bridgerton's Masquerade Ballroom Kit" and "The Sims 4 Lady Bridgerton's Masquerade Ball Fashion Kit." Priced at $6.99 each or as a combined bundle for $9.99, the kits introduce exclusive items such as a gazebo, piano, and a bassinet inspired by characters from the series.

The fashion kit allows players to dress their characters in exquisite outfits reminiscent of the series, including stylish gowns and tailcoats, while the ballroom kit provides the necessary furnishings to create an opulent setting complete with chandeliers and lavish décor.

This bundled offer will be accessible through various platforms, including PC, PlayStation, and Xbox, until August 14. It is important to note that the base game of "The Sims 4" is required to engage with these offerings.

As part of this collaboration, the development team immersed themselves in the "Bridgerton" world, drawing inspiration from the series to ensure authenticity in design. The unique trait, "Heart on Your Sleeve," which enhances character interactions and emotional experiences, aligns with the romantic themes of the show, offering players a richer storytelling experience.
