

Business of Entertainment Club to Host Year-End Showcase at Casa Cacao

Description

The Business of Entertainment Club held its End of Year Showcase at Casa Cacao. The event featured live music, digital art, and student films.

The club wants to connect students with different careers in the entertainment industry. Grace Rana is the president of the club. She said the event shows how people work in different areas like acting, filmmaking, and music.

Visitors can see many types of art. Casa Cacao is located at 367 E. Hudson St. Eva Gibson, the event coordinator, said this venue was very supportive of their needs.

The venue also offered special drinks at the event. One drink is called "The Business." It is a Golden latte with lavender. The other drink is "The Entertainment," a lemonade drink with coconut cream and pineapple.

Organising the event had challenges. It was hard to find artists and explain how different art forms could fit together. Rana said the team learned a lot about setting up equipment.

Gibson hopes the event helps students make good connections. The club wants to encourage more students to join next year. Their goal is to help student artists share their work and work together.
