

Chrissy Teigen Claps Back at Critics of Paris Olympics Outfit

Description

Known for her witty comebacks, Chrissy Teigen is no stranger to shutting down social media haters. Recently, she faced criticism for her pantsless look at the 2024 Olympics opening ceremony in Paris. Teigen, 38, donned a green knit Chloé cardigan and matching micro shorts, sparking mixed reactions from her followers.

While some likened her outfit to a diaper, Teigen coolly responded to a fan's negative comment with a simple "thanks for sharing!" Despite the backlash, the model received support from fans and famous friends like Busy Philipps.

Teigen's bold ensemble featured military-style gold buttons and was accessorized with Saint Laurent sandals and a Bottega Veneta clutch. This isn't the first time she's flaunted her figure in hot pants; the "Cravings" author has confidently rocked similar looks on previous occasions.

Not one to shy away from daring fashion choices, Teigen also turned heads at a women's gymnastics event in a white Alexander Wang ensemble. Her outfit, comprising a ribbed camel top and a super-cropped crisp white shirt paired with a matching skort, showcased her signature style.

With her fearless fashion sense, Chrissy Teigen continues to make headlines and push boundaries with her statement looks. Stay tuned for her next show-stopping appearance!
