

Class action settlement may entitle Walmart shoppers to receive up to $500

Description

Walmart is settling a class action lawsuit for $45 million that alleges certain weighted groceries and bagged fruit were sold at higher prices than advertised in stores. Customers who purchased these items between October 19, 2018, and January 19, 2024, may be eligible for cash payments. To apply, customers can submit a claim online or download a form to mail in by June 5. The settlement allows for payments to range based on the number of eligible products purchased, with options for those with and without receipts. Approved claimants will receive payments electronically through various methods. This news is part of ongoing efforts to address consumer concerns around pricing discrepancies.
