

Coachella 2026: Weekend One Timings and Streaming Details

Description

Coachella is a large music festival in Indio, California. It features eight main stages and additional smaller stages, creating a mini city of music. Many people enjoy the festival, but planning is important because some bands perform at the same time.

To help fans who want to watch from home, Coachella will stream live on the YouTube channel each day starting at 4 PM on April 10. The festival will broadcast performances from seven main stages. Viewers can watch multiple concerts at once using the YouTube multiview feature.

The festival's daily schedule has matches for the live streams, mostly after 4 PM. Once performances end for the night, the channel will replay highlights.

For the first weekend, key performances include Sabrina Carpenter on Friday at 9:05 PM and Justin Bieber on Saturday at 11:25 PM. On Sunday, KAROL G will perform last at 9:55 PM. Many other artists will also perform throughout the weekend, making it a busy time for music fans. The complete schedule shows a wide variety of performers each day, giving fans many options to enjoy the festival.
