

Completing Destiny 2 Raid Unlocks Final Mission After 19 Hours, A Treat For All Guardians

Description

The first Destiny 2 clan to successfully complete The Final Shape's raid has set off a chain of events in the beloved sci-fi shooter. After Parabellum clan members spent a grueling 19 hours conquering Salvation's Edge, a surprising twist awaited them. As the game's epic decade-long story drew to a close, a hidden final mission, Excision, was revealed for all players, regardless of their raid progress.

Excitement spread rapidly throughout the Destiny community as Guardians banded together to tackle the challenging 12-player mission. However, technical difficulties soon arose, with some players reporting "BAT" errors preventing them from fully experiencing the cutscenes. Bungie swiftly addressed the issue, advising players to attempt the mission solo or in smaller fireteams to mitigate the errors.

In addition to the new mission, Bungie announced an upcoming livestream on June 10th, teasing insights into the future of Destiny 2. While fans eagerly anticipate potential updates and expansions, Bungie clarified that the focus will remain on Destiny 2, dampening speculation about a possible Destiny 3 reveal.

Meanwhile, a leaked DLC for the game caused a stir among players ahead of its official release, hinting at even more surprises in store for the Destiny universe. The community eagerly awaits the next chapter in this thrilling saga.
