

Controversy Surrounding Jeff Bezos' Fiancé, Lauren Sanchez

Description

Lauren Sanchez attended Donald Trump's inauguration weekend in stylish outfits. She wore a black Dolce & Gabbana gown to a dinner with Elon Musk and Ivanka Trump. The next day, she and Jeff Bezos went to the Capitol Rotunda for the swearing-in ceremony. Despite the cold, Sanchez flaunted a white suit over a lace bustier. Some people on social media criticized her outfit, saying it was inappropriate. Others praised her for supporting the new president. Sanchez was not the only one wearing white on Monday. Influential Trump donor Miriam Adelson and White House chief of staff Susie Wiles also chose white outfits. This may have been a statement to reclaim white attire from the Democrats. Hillary Clinton and Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez have also worn white to honor suffragettes in the past. Overall, Sanchez's fashion choice sparked conversation and distraction from more important matters happening at the inauguration.
