

Crimson Desert's Major Update Set for May Release

Description

Pearl Abyss has announced a new update for Crimson Desert. This will happen in a few days. The update will add new mounts and a feature to recover materials.

Players can expect many changes. The update will also include bug fixes. Bug fixes help correct issues that make the game hard to play.

The exact date of the update is not known. However, previous updates have often come on weekends. This means players might get the update on Saturday or Sunday.

Many players face problems in the game. For example, sometimes a character disappears or cannot be used. There are also issues with quests and display problems on certain devices.

Players hope the update will fix these problems. After the update, players can find more information on MP1st. They will also see a list of what changes were made.
