

'Days' Star's Passing Sparks Soap Fans' Reactions

Description

UPDATED: Days of Our Lives star Drake Hogestyn, who passed away from pancreatic cancer at the age of 70, was fondly remembered by his fellow daytime drama actors as an "incredible man" who was dedicated to his craft. Hogestyn, known for his role as John Black on the show, joined the NBC soap opera in 1986 and continued his journey with it even after it moved to Peacock.

Described as a "wonderful and kind man" by his colleagues, Hogestyn's commitment to DOOL was unparalleled, just like his love for the fans. He and Deidre Hall (Marlena Evans) formed one of daytime drama's most beloved couples, keeping viewers captivated episode after episode.

Among the heartfelt tributes, Jennifer Horton, who portrayed Jennifer Horton on the show, expressed her deep sorrow at the news of Hogestyn's passing, emphasizing his love for his family and the wisdom he imparted on cherishing moments with loved ones.

Hogestyn's former co-stars, including Alison Sweeney, Thaao Penghlis, and Genie Francis, shared their condolences and memories of working with him, highlighting his kindness, talent, and profound impact on those around him.
