

Deck Factory provides fun and friends

Description

The Deck Factory Gaming Center in Lima sells lots of items for playing trading card and fantasy games. It is on Elida Road and had opened in 2016. People who enjoy games like Magic: The Gathering and Pokemon go there. The owner of the store, Justin Hertel, believes Lima is a good place for his shop. He says lots of game lovers live here.

Many people who come to the store are shy or don't like to be around others. This place gives them a chance to connect with people. The gaming area can fit more than 60 people. You can also play games online.

Outside, people have to act like adults. But inside the Deck Factory, they can always be kids. They can enjoy their hobbies freely. This store is also trying to tell more people about itself using Facebook. If you want to try a new hobby or take part in a game tournament, you can go to the Deck Factory.
