Elon Musk refutes "hostile takeover" rumors in White House surprise.

Description

Elon Musk said he is not taking over the US government aggressively. He wants to save money and make the government work better. President Trump supports Musk's plans to reduce the number of government workers. Musk believes it is important for the country to spend money wisely.

Some people are worried about Musk's changes. They say he is not elected and should not have so much power. Musk thinks it is necessary to cut government expenses to keep the country financially stable.

President Trump signed an order to make the government smaller. He wants to hire fewer people and save money. Many Americans agree with Musk's ideas to reduce spending, but some want Trump to focus on lowering prices. USAID, a government agency, is one of the organizations affected by the changes.

Overall, Musk and Trump are working together to make the government more efficient and save money.
