

Felix Long Returns Home After Yellowstone Visit

Description

The April 5 episode of "Marshals" remembered Monica, who died a year ago. The show brought strong feelings for Kayce and Tate, and a familiar face returned from "Yellowstone."

The episode starts right after a big moment from last week. Kayce faces blame for returning Hayley to traffickers. Thomas Rainwater accused him of putting their girls in danger. Tate, his son, said hurtful things about Kayce not honouring his mother. The Broken Rock memorial ceremony was near, and Kayce needed to find the missing girls quickly.

Kayce took action when the Marshals went to a bar known for being a hangout for the Iron Sentinels, a dangerous gang. Tired of waiting, Kayce set their motorcycles on fire, making the gang members leave. This helped the Marshals get important information from a gang member's phone. They discovered where the missing girls might be.

After some effort, including Belle changing her appearance to fit in, they found the girls. They all went to the Broken Rock ceremony, finally finding closure.

At the memorial, Kayce met Monica's grandfather, Felix Long. Felix felt happy to see him, saying it eased his pain from losing Monica. Kayce also shared an emotional moment, parting with Monica's necklace as he remembered her.
