

Golden Spike network to broadcast Omaha Storm Chasers games

Description

Omaha baseball fans can now watch the Storm Chasers' home games on TV. They can see the games on Channel 6.6.

First Alert 6 WOWT and the Omaha Storm Chasers have made a new partnership. They will show many home games this season from Werner Park. Fans can also watch on Channel 127 on Cox Cable.

WOWT Vice President Shannon Booth said this partnership is important for the community. She is excited to bring local sports to fans.

All games will be called by Nick Badders. He is the play-by-play broadcaster for the Storm Chasers. He has been with the team for four seasons.

Fans can watch the first game on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. The Storm Chasers will play against the Toledo Mud Hens at 6:35 p.m.

Martie Cordaro, president of the Storm Chasers, is happy about this new partnership. He believes it will bring fans closer to the games and players. Fans can also watch the games on Bally Sports Live and listen on News Talk 1290 KOIL.
