

Hallmark actress Mamie Laverock suffers multiple injuries in 5-story fall, family reveals

Description

Hallmark actress Mamie Laverock is still on the road to recovery after sustaining life-threatening injuries in a tragic incident. According to updates from her family on a GoFundMe page set up for her, Mamie has undergone multiple extensive surgeries to repair the damage to her shattered body. Despite the challenges she faces, her family expressed gratitude for the medical team who have been providing exemplary care since the incident occurred on May 26.

Although Mamie has a long way to go in her recovery, her family remains hopeful and thankful for the support and prayers they have received. They shared that Mamie is showing signs of improvement, although she continues to endure tremendous pain and faces a tough journey ahead.

The 19-year-old star, known for her role in "When Calls the Heart," has received an outpouring of support from fans and well-wishers, surpassing the fundraising goal set to assist with her medical expenses. As Mamie continues to fight for her life, her family remains by her side, hopeful for her recovery.

The Hallmark community, including the production team of "When Calls the Heart," has also expressed their support and well wishes for Mamie during this difficult time. As she continues her recovery, fans eagerly anticipate the upcoming season of the beloved series, set to begin filming in July.
