

Hasbro Unveils The Legend of Zelda: Heroes of Hyrule Figures

Description

Hasbro has recently announced that it has acquired the licence for The Legend of Zelda games, exciting fans of the franchise. This move means new action figures will be produced, featuring iconic characters like Link and Princess Zelda. To showcase this partnership, Hasbro will reveal three new figures at Comic-Con, with exclusive images available through IGN.

The figures represent Link, Zelda, and Ganondorf and are based on the latest game, The Legend of Zelda: Tears of the Kingdom, rather than the forthcoming live-action film. This collection reflects the 6-inch scale design typical of Hasbro's lines, such as Star Wars: The Black Series. Link and Zelda stand at 6 inches, while Ganondorf is slightly larger at 7.5 inches. Each character comes with various accessories, enhancing the playability of the figures. For instance, Ganondorf includes his Gloom Sword and interchangeable parts, while Link features his Hylian shield and Master Sword.

Pricing for the figures is set at $27.99 each for Link and Zelda, with Ganondorf priced at $42.99. All figures are expected to be released in Spring 2027, and pre-orders will open on July 22 at 5 PM PT.

Additionally, early prototypes of these figures will be displayed at Hasbro's Comic-Con booth. Fans are encouraged to follow IGN for more updates on these figures and other announcements from San Diego Comic-Con 2026.
