

Hearthstone Launches New Expansion: Cataclysm Now Live

Description

Deathwing has arrived in the game Hearthstone. The new expansion, called Cataclysm, has 135 new cards and new game features.

Players can now become Deathwing. This means they can use special powers in the game. These powers can destroy enemy creatures and affect the game board. Players can choose from four powerful abilities when they transform into Deathwing.

Deathwing is not alone; he comes with six giant helpers called Colossals. These Colossals are much bigger than normal cards. Each Colossal can break into parts that have special abilities. All players can use these Colossal cards, but only some classes like Demon Hunter and Shaman get extra benefits.

There is also a new feature called Herald. When players use Herald cards, they can summon soldiers to help. These soldiers share the same abilities as the Colossals.

Other classes, like Mage and Hunter, have powerful dragons to fight against Deathwing. Cards with the Shatter feature can break and then come back together for stronger effects. Players can now log in to use special trial cards from earlier expansions. Finally, players can enjoy the new Tavern Pass to get rewards and boost their gaming experience.
