

James Van Der Beek's First Wife Shares Blessing Before His Death

Description

James Van Der Beek's first wife, Heather McComb, recently remarried. She married Scott Michael Campbell. They had a wedding celebration filled with love.

Heather says that James, who was a famous actor, supported her new marriage. She felt happy to have his blessing. Heather and James were married from 2003 to 2010.

In an interview, Heather shared that James and his current wife, Kimberly, were excited about her new relationship. They both gave her their full support. McComb felt this joy deeply, especially after James passed away in February at the age of 48. He struggled with cancer.

McComb said it was meaningful to receive support from James before he died. She remembers how much he loved everyone in his life. She honoured all the people who could not attend her wedding, feeling their presence there.

Heather showed great respect for both James and Kimberly. She described them as "true soulmates." McComb appreciated the love they shared, calling it beautiful.
