

Jena Sims Kicks Off SI Swimsuit Week with Bikini Preview

Description

Jena Sims has been making waves in the modelling world, especially with her appearances in swimwear. Known for her work with Sports Illustrated Swimsuit, she celebrates her third consecutive feature in the magazine's 2026 issue. Her dedication to this field continues as she shares her experiences on social media.

Recently, Sims showcased behind-the-scenes content from her fitting session, demonstrating her commitment to keeping fans engaged. This timely post comes as the magazine enters launch week, offering fans a preview of what to expect.

Sports Illustrated Swimsuit has planned various events to mark the issue's release. Announced last week, the magazine will release model galleries on May 12, coinciding with its official launch. Additionally, fans can look forward to the SI Swimsuit Social Club events in New York City on May 15 and 16, featuring live shows and opportunities to meet the models.

Sims, while sharing her fitting content, is also on the list of models participating in the meet-and-greets later this week. Her proactive approach keeps her fan base excited and involved, showing her understanding of social media's role in connecting with audiences.

As the week progresses, both Sims and Sports Illustrated will be sharing more content and hosting events, further engaging their audience and celebrating the swimwear edition's launch.
