Jenna Bush Hager Shares Heartwarming Family Photos from July 4th

Description

Jenna Bush Hager celebrated America's 250th birthday with family festivities, including fireworks, on the Fourth of July. The co-host of TODAY with Jenna & Sheinelle shared moments from the event on her Instagram, describing it as the "Magic of July."

Many of Jenna's followers expressed their affection for her family, commenting on how quickly her children have grown. Observations included remarks about Hal's height and general admiration for the family dynamics displayed in the photographs.

As the evening's festivities featured fireworks, Jenna also included several photos and videos depicting the spectacular display. The visual highlights stood out in her portrayal of the traditional Independence Day experience.

Additionally, Jenna rounded off her post with a video of her cat, Maisie, enjoying a fruit plate she had prepared. This clip prompted various reactions, with followers noting the cat's enjoyment of apple slices and appreciating the balanced diet Jenna provides for her pet.

On July 7, Jenna revisited the fruit plate video during an episode of TODAY with Jenna & Sheinelle, capturing her co-host Sheinelle Jones's amusing reaction. Jenna explained that Maisie loves fruit, highlighting its benefits for her digestive health. When asked if she shared the fruit with her cat, Jenna's body language hinted at a playful exchange, adding a humorous note to the discussion.
