

Lauren Domingue: Why Vince Picked Morgan Over Her

Description

Lauren Domingue was in the Big Brother house for 10 weeks without being voted out. She shared how she did it and what she felt when her ally, Vince Panaro, chose Morgan Pope instead of her.

On Double Eviction Night, Lauren was put on the block by Vince. She got off the block during the first eviction. Kelley Jorgenson and Keanu Soto stayed on the block. Lauren voted against Keanu because they had fought before. But the vote ended in a tie, and Vince chose to evict Kelley.

For the second eviction, Morgan, who wanted Lauren out, became Head of Household and put Lauren and Keanu on the block again. Keanu won the Power of Veto and saved himself. Morgan nominated Ava Pearl, and Lauren was eventually voted out by a 2-to-1 vote.

During her time in the house, Lauren won four competitions, which helped her stay safe. She had a final two deal with Vince but felt betrayed when he turned on her.

Lauren talked about her game strategy and her feelings about Zach Cornell, a fellow contestant, after the show. She said, "Only time will tell" about pursuing a relationship with him.
