WWE Women's Tag Team Championship match: The Kabuki Warriors (Asuka and Kairi Sane) vs. Candice LeRae and Indi Hartwell

With an impressive performance from Hartwell, the home country grappler in the opening sequences, the crowd's enthusiasm levels soared before the event's official commencement. The clamor for Hartwell reverberated around the stadium.

Gradually, the reigning champions asserted their dominance over the match, displaying a synergy that manifested in swift yet forceful moves against LeRae. The stadium erupted as LeRae tagged Hartwell back in, her power against Sane and Asuka on full display.

The challengers had a few near-successful attempts at pinning before Sane expertly disrupted the flow of the game, leaving LeRae isolated. However, Asuka, quick on her feet, set up Sane for the 'Insane Elbow' - a finisher move that is renowned in WWE women's division, leading to a successful pin and title retention.

It was a challenging prospect to envision the champions losing their titles in the initial event. Still, they valiantly held their ground, signaling a promising start to the event proceedings. The stirring standing ovation for Hartwell, even in the face of defeat, was a testament to the crowd's appreciation of her prowess.
