Matthew Lillard Reflects on Tarantino Snub's Silver Lining

Description

Matthew Lillard has been working hard to return to the "Scream" movies. His character, Stu Macher, may have survived a heavy TV dropping on him. Lillard joked about proving this by dropping a real TV but decided against it.

Lillard is busy with new projects. He is in the Amazon show "Cross," where he plays a detective. He will also act in a new "Carrie" miniseries on Amazon. He is working with Marvel in "Daredevil: Born Again." Lillard is also preparing for a new "Five Nights at Freddy's" movie.

His efforts paid off. Lillard will appear in the latest "Scream" film, which released its final trailer recently. He has responded to comments made by director Quentin Tarantino, who said he did not value Lillard's acting. Lillard felt hurt but also valued the support he received from others in the industry.

Lillard is excited to be back in "Scream." He believes fans will enjoy the new film, but he cannot share many details yet.
