

Mother of Levi Wright shares details of how her son tragically drowned in a creek while playing with his toy tractor near their Utah home

Description

Levi Wright's mother recently shared the tragic details of how her young son ended up in the creek where he tragically drowned. The three-year-old boy had been playing with his toy tractor on their property when he accidentally veered off into the fast-flowing waters. Despite his mother's efforts to rescue him, Levi spent 12 days in the hospital before his life support was eventually turned off.

The family had initially hoped for a miracle as Levi briefly woke up, but further tests revealed devastating news about his brain function. After much contemplation and consultations with medical experts, Levi's parents made the difficult decision to let him go.

The heart-wrenching story captured the attention and support of people worldwide, with many expressing their condolences and offering assistance to the grieving family. Levi's passing serves as a reminder of the fragility of life and the importance of cherishing every moment with loved ones. The family is grateful for the outpouring of love and support during this difficult time.
