Neo Geo+ Promises Enhanced Experience, Claims Modding Expert Furrtek

Description

Plaion is working with SNK to make a new game console called the Neo Geo+. This console will be a copy of the original Neo Geo AES. Many people are curious about how it works.

Plaion says that the Neo Geo+ will not use software emulation. Instead, it will have new parts made to be like the old ones. These parts will help the console run games as they did in the past. It will play games from both new and old cartridges, which are the small game devices.

Some experts, like Jotego and Furrtek, are helping with these new parts. They are known for making things for old games. Furrtek believes that the Neo Geo+ could be one of the best consoles since SNK stopped making them. He thinks it will be better than old emulators, which are programs that try to copy games.

Not everyone agrees. Another expert, Pramod Somashekar, thinks the design may have problems. He warns that the new console might not be easy to update if there are mistakes.
