New Deadpool and Wolverine Scene Reveals X-23's Fate

Description

The latest Deadpool and Wolverine deleted scene has finally addressed a lingering plot hole in the movie's ending and added some closure to the flirtatious dynamic between B-15 and Peter. In this exclusive scene revealed by The Hollywood Reporter, B-15 walks Peter back to his apartment where they share a brief but meaningful kiss before she returns to the TVA through a Time Door.

Following this intimate moment, we see Peter on his couch with two of Deadpool's variants, Kidpool and Headpool, now living with him as roommates, enjoying some popcorn together. This scene, which can be viewed below, is just one of the deleted scenes that will be included in the upcoming home release of Deadpool and Wolverine on October 22.

This particular scene not only fills in a gap in the storyline by showing how Dafne Keen's X-23 was rescued from The Void, but it also hints at the TVA's intercession to ensure her safety during the battle at Cassandra's compound. This detail aligns with the speculation surrounding Channing Tatum's Gambit's fate as well, as glimpsed on a TVA monitor in the post-credits scenes.

The home release promises a treasure trove of additional content, including featurettes, director's commentary, and more deleted scenes, with a tantalizing vignette teasing a potential spoiler. For fans eager to delve deeper into the Marvel Cinematic Universe, there's a guide to upcoming Marvel movies and a comprehensive overview of the Marvel timeline. Dive into this intricate universe and immerse yourself in the world of superheroes and villains.
