

Olivia Rodrigo goes bigger, bolder with Guts World Tour kickoff – Press Enterprise

Description

Olivia Rodrigo had a successful start to her career when her Sour Tour in 2022 sold out shows across the country. The singer-songwriter gave a powerful performance during her first stint in Los Angeles. Since then, Olivia has won many Grammy awards and performed on various TV shows, including "Saturday Night Live." She even released a new album, "Guts," on Sept. 8, 2023.

Rodrigo has now begun her Guts World Tour in 2024, playing to bigger audiences in 10,000-seat arenas. The first concert was at the Acrisure Arena in Palm Desert, not too far from her hometowns of Temecula and Murrieta, California. It was an energetic kickoff, filled with lively music and loud cheers from her fans. Olivia's performance was visually engaging, with a big screen displaying live footage of her, exciting costume changes, and her skillful use of the stage.

Olivia's shows now bring in bigger crowds and her performances have grown with her fame. Her concerts now include backup dancers, a live band, and much bigger production values. The fans love the energy she brings to her performances, and she makes sure to include them in the concert experience.

The Guts World Tour will finish with four sold-out shows at the Kia Forum in Inglewood in August. Olivia Rodrigo's musical journey has just begun, but with her talent and crowd-pleasing concerts, her star is sure to continue rising.
