

Persona 4 Revival Game Unveils New English Voice Cast

Description

Sega announced on Tuesday the English voice cast for Persona 4 Revival, a new version of its 2008 role-playing game. This remake is important because it brings back a beloved game for new and old fans.

Nazeeh Tarsha will voice the Protagonist, who was previously voiced by Johnny Yong Bosch. Paul Castro Jr. takes the role of Yosuke Hanamura, originally voiced by Yuri Lowenthal. Anne Yatco will play Chie Satonaka, who was voiced by Erin Fitzgerald in Persona 4 Golden and Tracey Rooney in the original PlayStation 2 game.

Brianna Knickerbocker voices Yukiko Amagi, a role that was held by Amanda Winn Lee before. Ari Thrash will play Marie, previously voiced by Eden Riegel.

In addition, Sega will have a livestream on Thursday to share more details about the game. Persona 4 Revival will launch on February 18, 2027, for PlayStation 5, Xbox Series X|S, Xbox PC with Xbox Game Pass, and PC via Steam. Players can pre-order the game now.

The original Persona 4 was released on PlayStation 2 in 2008 and had a version called Persona 4 Golden for PlayStation Vita in 2011. There have been several spin-off games in the franchise as well.
