

Producers Guild Awards 2026: Full List of Winners

Description

The Producers Guild of America (PGA) Awards attract significant attention as a key predictor of the Best Picture winner at the Academy Awards. This prestigious ceremony, honouring producers across various media, prominently features the Darryl F. Zanuck Award for Outstanding Producer of Theatrical Motion Pictures. Awarded through a preferential voting system from a shortlist of ten films, this accolade closely mirrors the Oscars' Best Picture ballot and has effectively forecasted the top Oscar winner in the last five years.

The anticipation builds around whether the film One Battle After Another will secure its Best Picture title or whether Sinners might stage an unexpected rise as a contender. The performance of the films nominated influences discussions around the industry's evolving trends and public tastes.

The PGA Awards also recognise achievements in other categories, including animation, episodic television, and documentaries. For instance, the Outstanding Producer of Animated Theatrical Motion Pictures includes notable titles such as The Bad Guys 2 and Zootopia 2. Meanwhile, the documentary segment features My Mom Jayne: A Film by Mariska Hargitay, which recently earned critical acclaim.

Industry professionals and audiences alike will monitor the results, as they not only impact the Oscars but also reflect broader narratives within Hollywood and beyond. The winners' list will be continuously updated during the awards ceremony, providing real-time insights into the industry's evolving landscape.

As the night progresses, keen observers will note how these wins may influence future awards and nominations in the rapidly changing realm of film and television.
