Report: Celine Dion slated to perform at the Summer Olympics, claims entertainment news source

Description

Celine Dion is making a highly-anticipated return to the stage during the Summer Olympics opening ceremonies in Paris. Rumors suggest that the pop superstar and Las Vegas residency champion will be a part of the star-studded event. Videos on social media show Dion arriving in Paris with her manager and AEG Presents exec, John Nelson. Speculation is also swirling around Lady Gaga potentially headlining the ceremony and staying at the same hotel as Dion. While AEG reps are hopeful for Dion's return at Resorts World Theatre, no formal plans have been announced yet. Dion's last full concert was in 2020 before being diagnosed with Stiff Person Syndrome. Despite her health challenges, she has been active in the public eye, including the release of a documentary and making appearances at events. Stay tuned for more updates on Dion's highly-anticipated comeback performance!
