

Scott Patterson's Departure From 'Sullivan's Crossing' Explained

Description

Sullivan's Crossing is a popular Canadian drama. It will start its fourth season in the U.S. on April 20. Fans learned that Scott Patterson, who plays Harry "Sully" Sullivan, will not return.

At the end of Season 3, Sully's story was not finished. Fans want to know what happens to him in Season 4. Scott Patterson left the show because of creative differences. He shared his feelings about this on March 5. He said he loved playing Sully but could not continue. He felt the show was not what he agreed to.

Showrunner Roma Roth said that Sully's character is still important. He might return in future seasons, but nothing is confirmed yet. Patterson was worried about his character's direction. He asked to leave after Season 3 and was surprised by the announcement about his exit.

In Season 3, Sully went to Ireland. Season 4 starts the next day with Sully still away. His absence will change the story and affect his daughter, Maggie. She needs support now more than ever.
