

Starlink Mission Launching from Cape Canaveral on Tuesday

Description

SpaceX Successfully Launches Starlink 6-53 Mission from Cape Canaveral

SpaceX achieved a milestone with the successful launch of the Starlink 6-53 mission from Cape Canaveral Space Force Station. The Falcon 9 rocket lifted off from Launch Complex 40 at 6:17 p.m. EDT, carrying 23 Starlink internet satellites. This launch marked the 300th Falcon booster landing for SpaceX.

Despite initial delays due to weather concerns, SpaceX managed to launch the mission as scheduled. The rocket's first-stage booster is expected to land on a drone ship in the Atlantic Ocean shortly after liftoff, without causing any sonic booms in Central Florida.

SpaceX reported that this mission is the ninth flight for the Falcon 9 first-stage booster. In the past, the booster has been used for Crew-6, SES O3b mPOWER, USSF-124, and five Starlink missions.

The Space Force's 45th Weather Squadron gave the launch a high probability of success, with weather conditions favorable for liftoff.
