

Subscription for Amazon Prime Members and EBT Customers for Grocery Delivery

Description

Read this article in Spanish

Today, we are thrilled to introduce a grocery delivery subscription benefit for Prime members and EBT customers in over 3,500 cities and towns across the U.S.

Priced at $9.99 per month for Prime members, this subscription offers unlimited grocery delivery on orders over $35 from Amazon Fresh, Whole Foods Market, and various local grocery and specialty retailers on Amazon.com. Customers with a registered EBT card can enjoy the same benefits without a Prime membership for just $4.99 per month. A free 30-day trial is available for customers to experience the convenience of this grocery delivery subscription.

For a low monthly fee, customers can shop national brands, organic foods, and natural products as needed. The subscription includes one-hour delivery windows at no extra cost, unlimited 30-minute pickup on any size order, priority access to Recurring Reservations for a weekly grocery order, and unlimited delivery on $35+ orders from local retailers such as Cardenas Markets, Save Mart, and Rite Aid.

The grocery delivery subscription pays for itself with just one delivery order per month from Whole Foods Market or Amazon Fresh. This new benefit is designed to save customers time and money while offering a wide selection of nearly 100,000 grocery items.

Learn more about this Amazon grocery subscription benefit and sign up here to enjoy exclusive deals for Prime members at Amazon Fresh and Whole Foods Market. Get unlimited 5% back on purchases with your Prime Visa both online and in-store. Amazon is committed to delivering an exceptional grocery shopping experience online and in-store, focusing on price, selection, and convenience for all customers. With a variety of stores and partnerships, Amazon continues to innovate and provide extra perks for Prime members in the grocery shopping space.
