

Subscription Service for Amazon Grocery Delivery Available to Prime Members and EBT Customers

Description

Amazon is thrilled to introduce a new grocery delivery subscription benefit for Prime members and EBT users in over 3,500 cities across the U.S. Priced at $9.99 per month for Prime members, this subscription offers unlimited grocery delivery on orders over $35 from Amazon Fresh, Whole Foods Market, and local retailers on Amazon.com. For those with an EBT card, the subscription is just $4.99 per month. A 30-day free trial is available for customers to experience the convenience.

Customers can enjoy one-hour delivery windows, 30-minute pickup, and priority access to Recurring Reservations for weekly grocery orders. The subscription pays for itself after just one delivery order per month. Additionally, Prime members can access exclusive savings at Amazon Fresh and Whole Foods Market.

Following a successful pilot in select cities, customers are highly satisfied with the service. To sign up and learn more, visit the Amazon website. Prime members shopping at Amazon Fresh and Whole Foods Market can also earn 5% back on purchases with a Prime Visa card. Amazon continues to innovate to provide a top-notch grocery shopping experience, offering a wide selection and convenience to all customers, with added benefits for Prime members.
