

Taylor Swift says 'most wonderful' Eras Tour will end in December

Description

American pop star Taylor Swift announced that her tour, called the Eras Tour, will end in December. She made this announcement during her 100th show in Liverpool, England on June 13. Swift shared with her fans that this has been the most exhausting but also the most joyful and rewarding experience of her life. The tour started in Glendale, Arizona on March 18, 2023, and went through several countries including the US, South America, Asia, and Australia. It is now in Europe, and will return to North America for the final stops. The last show will be in Vancouver, Canada on December 8. The Eras tour was very popular, leading to a rise in air travel across Europe. Big thanks to her fans from Swift for their support and for showing up at her tour.
