Description

Title: A New Taylor Swift and Scooter Braun Documentary

Taylor Swift and Scooter Braun are both famous in the music world. They have been in an argument for many years. Now, their story will be told in a new documentary series.

The documentary is called "Taylor Swift vs Scooter Braun: Bad Blood." It will be shown in two parts. It is being made by Warner Bros. Discovery U.K. and Ireland. The documentary is part of their "vs" series, which tells about arguments between famous people.

The documentary will talk about Swift's and Braun's disagreement. It all started in 2019 when Braun bought the rights to Swift's first six albums. The albums cost $300 million. Swift was not happy. She said she was not asked about the sale. She also said Braun is stopping her from buying the albums back. On the other hand, Braun said that Swift turned down his offer to discuss the issue. He also accused her of starting the dispute with him in public.

The documentary will show viewers about music rights. It will also discuss the roles men and women play in music. It will talk about the power of fans too. People who understand the law and journalists will take part in the documentary. They will discuss the case for and against Swift and Braun.

The documentary will be shown in the U.K. and Ireland in June. It will be on Discovery+.
