Vivienne Jolie-Pitt Removes Last Name in Playbill

Description

Vivienne Jolie-Pitt, daughter of Hollywood stars Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt, recently made a bold move by dropping her father's last name and choosing to be referred to as "Vivienne Jolie" in the Playbill for the Broadway play "The Outsiders." The 15-year-old assisted her mother in producing the play, showcasing her talent and independence. This decision follows a similar move by her older sister Zahara, who also omitted Pitt from her name during a sorority introduction at Spelman College.

The Jolie-Pitt family has been in the spotlight due to ongoing custody battles and legal proceedings between Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt, who separated in 2016 after two years of marriage. Despite the challenges they face, Jolie emphasized in a recent interview the importance of healing and supporting their children, including Maddox, Pax, Zahara, Shiloh, Knox, and Vivienne.

As the family navigates their public struggles, Jolie remains focused on her children, while Pitt has been linked romantically to Ines de Ramon. The Jolie-Pitt saga continues to captivate fans and followers, shedding light on the complexities of fame, family, and relationships.
