
Why Rachel from Friends Sparks Controversy: A Fan's Perspective

Description

When you click on links in our articles, Future and its partners may earn money.

Credit: NBC

Friends is a show I love. It started on NBC 30 years ago. I watch it a lot on HBO Max. I enjoy all the characters: Ross, Rachel, Chandler, Monica, Phoebe, and Joey. But some people think Jennifer Aniston's character, Rachel, is not so great.

One fan on Reddit said Rachel is not nice. They argue that Rachel often acts selfishly. For example, she wanted a break with Ross but saw another man right after that. This upset Ross.

Rachel has caused problems in Ross's other relationships too. Sometimes, she seemed spoiled and did not think about others' feelings.

Even so, I still love Rachel and the show. All 10 seasons of Friends are on HBO Max, and you can see Jennifer Aniston in The Morning Show, which is on Apple TV+.

Vocabulary List:

1. selfishly /'sɛlfɪʃli/ (adverb): In a manner characterized by lack of consideration for others; in a self-centered way.
2. relationships /rɪ'leɪʃən,ʃɪps/ (noun): The way in which two or more people or groups regard and behave toward each other.
3. characters /'kærɪktərz/ (noun): The individuals that play a role in a story movie or show.
4. upset /ʌp'set/ (verb): To make someone unhappy or worried.
5. spoiled /spɔɪld/ (adjective): Having been pampered or treated excessively well often leading to a lack of consideration for others.
6. enjoy /ɪn'dʒɔɪ/ (verb): To take delight or pleasure in something.

Answer

CATEGORY

1. Entertainment - LEVEL1

Date Created

2025/09/26

Author

aimeeyoung99